

Call for Poster Presentations at the 2025 TLA Annual Conference

The TLA Conference Planning Committee invites the display of scholarly and other research topics and projects at a dedicated TLA Annual Conference session in Dallas, TX.

Wednesday, April 2, 2024
11:00 am - 1:00 pm

The TLA 2025 Annual Conference will be held at the Kay Bailey Hutchison Convention Center Dallas (KBHCCD), in downtown Dallas at 650 S Griffin St.

Graduate students, junior faculty, librarians, and independent researchers are invited share their research with conference attendees from the library industry.

Poster Session Topic Examples

- Digital Information Literacy Topics
- Innovative Instructional Collaborations
- Diversity, Inclusion, & Social Justice Work
- Educational discoveries
- Social Media Applications
- Collection Development Challenges
- Data Driven Decision-making
- Employee Wellness
- Discipline-specific research
- Qualitative/Quantitative studies

We welcome other innovative and exciting ideas. Our goal is to showcase and honor the role of active research in all fields as a crucial aspect of library science and service to stakeholders.

The theme for the 2025 Annual Conference is “Library Renaissance Our Quest for Renewal,” and we hope that researchers view this open invitation as a chance to engage with the library community in Texas.

Submissions Deadline: January 21, 2025

After a review and selection process, applicants will be notified in late February of the status of their submissions.

If selected, all poster sessions speakers/presenters will receive a session only pass that allows them to present their poster session in the registration area. If you'd like to enjoy conference, please check out our badge options at tla.org/annual-conference/.

TLA is excited to accept proposals from professionals at any stage of their career. Students and early career professionals are highly encouraged to apply.
