FEATURED KEYNOTES:

Nina Sidell, M.A.  Mindful Living in a Mindless World
Nina Sidell is a seasoned Psychotherapist with 30+ years in Clinical Private Practice. Nina educates, encourages, and inspires her audiences, clients, and readers to live their best lives at home and at work. She supports others to find their voice, power, and love. Mindfulness is at the heart of effective coping and strategizing. By increasing awareness and discovering neutrality, you develop greater self-compassion and resilience. Listen to Nina's engaging Keynote Talk and take away new skills you can use immediately.

Ida Joiner  Emerging Library Technologies
Ida Arlene Joiner is the Senior Librarian at the Universal Academy in Texas. She is the author of the book Emerging Library Technologies: It's Not Just for Geeks (Elsevier, 2018). Her forthcoming book on Drones in Libraries will be available in July 2020 (Elsevier). Ida has published numerous articles on emerging technologies and is an international and national presenter on the topic. Listen to Ida's fascinating Keynote talk on emerging library technologies.

Cecilia Barham  Update on the Texas Library Association
Cecilia Barham has worked in libraries, if you include her year as a 4th grade library aid, for 28 years. She has worked in both academic and public libraries. Cecilia was co-chair of the 2017 Conference Program Committee and has served as chair of District 7 and the Public Libraries Division. Currently she is director of library services at North Richland Hills Library, and 2019-2020 TLA President. Cecillia will bring us all up to date on TLA news.
