COME DAY IN NIGHT: HOW READING SHAKESPEARE TURNED A TEXAS FARM BOY INTO AN AWARD-NOMINATED AUTHOR

— EXHIBITOR SHOWCASE —

April 27, 2022 • 10:00-10:50 AM • ROOM #2

With his pioneering EnterActive© approach, hal evans shares a deep dive into his debut novel, Come Day in Night. Passages from the book combine with excerpts from other literature and from participants' own personal narratives to reveal a fresh approach to literary analysis— one that connects reading to everyday life for students and educators alike. Enjoy discovering the madness (or madcappedness) of evans' method— as Puck would say, a merrier hour was never wasted here!

*Author signing immediately following exhibitor showcase in the author signing area.
