

CALL FOR POSTERS

The Conference Planning Committee invites the display of scholarly research topics and projects at a dedicated conference session in Austin, TX on

Thursday, April 20, 2023

11 am until 1 pm

Austin Convention Center Exhibit Hall 1

Graduate students, junior faculty, and independent researchers are invited to display and discuss their research with professional librarians, known for their curiosity and broad knowledge.

<ul style="list-style-type: none">● Digital Information Literacy● Innovative Instructional Collaborations● Diversity, Inclusion, & Social Justice● Educational discoveries● Social Media Applications	<ul style="list-style-type: none">● Collection Development Challenges● Data Driven Decision-making● Employee Wellness● Discipline-specific research● Qualitative/Quantitative studies
---	---

Other innovative and exciting ideas are welcome! It is our goal to demonstrate and celebrate the role of active research in all fields as an important facet of library science and service to stakeholders. The theme for the 2023 annual conference is LIBRARIES UNITE, and we hope that researchers see this open invitation as an opportunity to unite with the library community in Texas. TLA is excited to accept proposals from professionals at any stage of their career.

Presenters will stand by their posters and answer questions from attendees.

Students and early career professionals are highly encouraged to apply.

Submissions deadline: January 13, 2023

Learn more and submit for presentation here. (You must create a login at the site, to enter and submit your proposal.)

The Texas Library Association's mission is to unite and amplify voices of the library community through advocacy, education, and intentional equity, diversity, and inclusion.

The Texas Library Association is an integral partner, innovative leader, and passionate advocate for Texas libraries and librarians.

