DIY Book Buzz	Learn to recreate one of the most popular sessions at TLA, Book Buzz, for your library guests! Find out how to select the best titles for adults, put together a presentation for a live or virtual audience, and promote your collection.	Bette McDowell, Margaret Miller, Chermaine Burleson, Pflugerville Public Library	Summit 2022	34 minutes
Beyond the Sunday Funnies	This session will explore the complicated and textured history of comics and graphic novels in the literary world. To the uninitiated, graphic novels are often snubbed as either pop-literature or light-weight storytelling. However, graphic novels are a planetary storytelling phenomenon and a storytelling form grown within specific times (history) and places (regions). Professor Aldama will underscore the foundational graphic novels that should be included in any library's collection – and why.	Frederick Aldama, University of Texas, Austin	Summit 2022	60 minutes
We Need (Neuro) Diverse Books!	According to the CDC, 1 in 6 children have been diagnosed with a mental, behavioral, or developmental condition like autism. How can we update our collections to respectfully and accurately represent this diverse population? An autistic librarian will share recommendations and resources.	Adriana White, South San Antonio ISD	Summit 2022	55 minutes
But I Don't Know How to Book Talk	The lost art of booktalking is integral to the core mission of libraries: literacy. Learn and practice the art of intriguing your readers by honing your booktalking abilities	Stephanie Galvan Russell, PFISD Alexandra Cornejo, Harlingen CISD	TLA 2021	37:04
