

Welcome!

Sharing your expertise with the Texas
Library Journal

Wendy Woodland

Director of Advocacy and Communications

Editor, Texas Library
Journal

Michele Chan
Santos

Marketing Specialist

Assistant Editor,
Texas Library Journal

About the Texas Library Journal

---

- Published 4 times a year, digital only
  - January: Winter issue includes conference program
  - April: Spring issue includes conference exhibits
  - June: Summer issue
  - September: Fall issue
- Audience is librarians and library staff at all types of libraries and varying career levels
- Not a peer-reviewed journal
- No book reviews

About the Texas Library Journal

---

- Copy deadline 15th of month prior to publication (i.e. August 15 for September issue)
- Feature Articles: 1000 – 1200 words
- Other Articles: 500 – 800 words

What kinds of articles are we looking for?

Best practices, innovation, and trends that will inspire and inform readers

- Unique library programs
- Interesting professional experience
- Collection development, archiving, cataloging, etc.
- Technology
- Leadership, mentorship
- Management, human resources, facilities
- Serving diverse populations
- Challenges and solutions
- Advocacy
- Community partnerships

I have an idea for an article. What do I do next?

A vertical flowchart with four steps, each in a rounded rectangular box. The boxes are colored orange, reddish-brown, dark reddish-brown, and grey from top to bottom. Downward-pointing arrows connect the boxes. The text in each box is white.

Email Michele and Wendy (micheles@txla.org and wendyw@txla.org ) with a short summary of your idea. A couple of sentences is fine.

We'll communicate with you about deadlines for upcoming issues, art possibilities (photos and charts that could go with the article) or other questions we have.

Note: we are not able to pay our contributors, but you can share the article to your professional networks and use it to enhance your professional expertise.

ANY QUESTIONS?

---

Contact us

Wendy Woodland wendyw@txla.org

Michele Santos micheles@txla.org