Call for Poster Sessions Presentations at the 2024 TLA Annual Conference

The TLA Conference Planning Committee invites the display of scholarly and other research topics and projects at a dedicated TLA Annual Conference session in San Antonio, TX.

Wednesday, April 17, 2024
11:00 am - 1:00 pm

The TLA 2024 Annual Conference will be held at the Henry B. Gonzalez Convention Center, in downtown San Antonio, 900 E Market Street.

Graduate students, junior faculty, librarians, and independent researchers are welcome to display and discuss their research with conference attendees, most of whom are librarians, known for their curiosity and broad knowledge.

Poster Session Topic Examples

- Digital Information Literacy Topics
- Innovative Instructional Collaborations
- Diversity, Inclusion, & Social Justice Work
- Educational discoveries
- Social Media Applications
- Collection Development Challenges
- Data Driven Decision-making
- Employee Wellness
- Discipline-specific research
- Qualitative/Quantitative studies

Other innovative and exciting ideas are welcome. It is our goal to demonstrate and celebrate the role of active research in all fields as an important facet of library science and service to stakeholders.

The theme for the 2024 Annual Conference is STORIES INSPIRE OPPORTUNITIES AWAIT, and we hope that researchers see this open invitation as an opportunity to connect with the library community in Texas.

Submissions deadline:
February 12, 2024

After a review and selection process, applicants will be notified in early March 2024 of the status of their submissions.

If selected, all poster sessions speakers/presenters will receive a complimentary one-day registration for Wednesday, April 17 of the conference and can attend educational sessions and the exhibit hall that same day.

TLA is excited to accept proposals from professionals at any stage of their career. Students and early career professionals are highly encouraged to apply.
